

PROTEST AT DUMP AS HEALTH MENACE

Residents at Green Lane and Godfrey Street Say Spot Is Dangerous

DR. FURBUSH CRITICIZED

A lot east of Broad street, between Green lane and Godfrey street, is being used as a dumping ground for garbage and is said to have become a menace to the health of residents of the vicinity.

The lot is owned by Harry L. Brocklehurst. At his office, 512 West North street, it was said that no complaints against the dump had been received. A house sergeant at the York road and Champlott avenue police station, a short distance away, also declared that he had heard no complaints against the spot.

But Joseph F. Janke, of 6285 North street, who recently built several new houses and apartments on Park avenue and Broad street, declared that the dump has so depreciated the value of the houses that it is difficult to rent them. A small percentage of the houses were let at greatly reduced rentals, he said.

Rats, which feed on the decayed garbage of the dump, have overrun nearby homes, causing much property damage and menacing the health of that section, Mr. Janke said.

Adjoining the dump at the rear is the Hebrew Orphan's Home, with 120 children, from six to eighteen years old. Dr.
J. Ludwig Stern, superintendent of the institution, termed the dump "a reeking pesthole."

He denounced Director of Health Fur-bush and other city officials for permitting the dumping of garbage on the lot, contrary to city ordinances.

"I go out at night," he said, "and see children playing around the dump on filthy, discarded mattresses and breathing foul air laden with germs from the decayed vegetable, fruit and other matter."

According to other nearby residents, many of the wagons from which garbage is dumped on the lot bear the signals of the Department of Public Works.

George H. Shaw, chief of the Division of Housing and Sanitation, said today that his department had received no complaint about the condition of the dump. He said he would send an inspector to make an investigation, and if things are as bad as reported the lot would be cleaned.

CHURCH HAS BIRTHDAY

Chelton Avenue M. E. Congregation to Celebrate All Week

A week's program of exercises marking the thirty-fifth anniversary of the Chelton Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church will open at 10:30 o'clock in the church, at Stenton and Chelton avenues, with a sermon by the Rev. Dr.
D. D. Forsythe.

there will be a great Sunday-school gathering, and an address by William O. Landes, general secretary of the Pennsylvania State Sunday School Association.

BRICKER STUDYING CIVIL ENGINEERING

Malpractitioner Starts Course in Prison to Develop Land Bought in Paraguay

NO FUTURE IN MEDICINE

Although he is fifty-seven years old, and will be sixty-one before he is liberated, Dr. William H. Bricker, mal-practitioner, has taken up the study of civil engineering at the Eastern Penitentiary so that he can develop a land bought in Paraguay while a fugitive from justice.

The surgeon, whose exploits led five nations to join hands in bringing about his return to the United States from South America, is now convinced that the practice of medicine holds no further promise for him.

As librarian of the Penitentiary, he has ample opportunity to obtain books on the subject of engineering. Deciding that the Penitentiary library did not have sufficient books on this subject, he bought a large number of volumes and donated them to the prison.

Bricker said that he bought $100,000 worth of land, rich in blue clay, which is used in the manufacture of aluminum.
He said that he had a knowledge of engineering which would enable him to increase the value of the land, he believes.

Dr. Bricker was committed to the Eastern Penitentiary June 10, after county, State and Federal authorities had sought for eighteen months to have him returned to America.

REACHES CENTURY MARK

Abraham Oppenheimer Once Was Best Skater in Philadelphia

Abraham Oppenheimer, a guest at the Home for Aged and Infirm Israelites at the Jewish Hospital, is celebrating his 100th birthday today, aided by the forty-seven other guests at the home.

Mr. Oppenheimer is more interested in the world today than ever. He reads the newspapers without the aid of spectacles, and a cane, he says, is for old people. He will not use one.

He was born at Baumtown, near Reading. At one time he was the champion ice skater of Philadelphia.

SAVES HOME; LOSES GOWNS

Woman Fights Flames Alone Before Arrival of Firemen

In a battle to save her house and summer wardrobe from fire, Mrs. Julia Matysik, 2256 Yelland street, both won and lost this morning.

She extinguished the blaze and saved the house from serious damage, but a number of frocks were ruined.

Fearing for her children's safety when she smelled smoke, she rushed upstairs to find that they were not there, but that a closet was blazing.

She poured water on the flames and had put out the blaze when firemen arrived. She estimates her loss at $200.
